

Some Image Banks for Plants Available:

COLOUR IMAGES:

- Celebrate Biodiversity:
The main activity of Celebrate Biodiversity is to create posters showcasing the diversity of 'underappreciated' organisms. The website contains interactive versions of the posters where you can see detailed information about each of the species that we have featured.
www.celebrate-biodiversity.com
- Digital Flora of Newfoundland and Labrador Vascular Plants:
This website is hosted by the Provincial Museum of Newfoundland and Labrador. English-only.
www.nfmuseum.com/flora.htm
- E-Flora BC:
An electronic atlas of British Columbia plants with searchable database and photos.
www.geog.ubc.ca/~brian/florae/index.shtml
- Lady Bird Johnson Wildflower Center's Image Gallery:
A collection of images of North American species. English-only.
www.wildflower2.org/NPIN/Gallery/gallery.html
- National Biological Information Infrastructure site:
An American database with most images in public domain. Many species whose range includes parts of Canada. Also includes wildlife. English-only.
images.nbi.gov
- U.S. Department of Agriculture, Natural Resources Conservation Service, National Plant Data Center site:
A comprehensive American database including many species also found in Canada. English-only.
plants.usda.gov/

LINE AND CLIP ART

- Biodidac, University of Ottawa (bilingual):
Clip art useful for teaching biology, including botany.
biodidac.bio.uottawa.ca
- U.S. Department of Agriculture, Forestry Collection:
A collection of line drawings of North American species. English-only.
huntbot.andrew.cmu.edu/USDA/USDA.html